American Legion Goes Over Quota in Band Benefit

Chairman Al Drozda, who spearheaded American Legion post 292's Day in the Park for the benefit of the Albany High School band uniform fund, reported Monday that the day produced $527. The goal was $500.

During the afternoon Drozda gave Band Director Ernest Douglas $450. An additional $77 was raised by the American Legion Auxiliary, who ran out of pink lemonade in their refreshment stand. They were to have presented the funds to the Band Boosters at their Monday night meeting and it was rumored that another organization was to present a check for $75.

Summer Swim Class Registration At Albany Pool

It was announced by Bert Griffin, Pool Director, that registration for the summer swimming classes opened Monday, May 24.

Registration is at the Albany Pool, Portland and Pomona Avenues, Albany. The time is from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Registrations will continue until all classes are filled.

The special attraction for the summer is the class for the 3½-5 year olds who must be 30 inches to the chin. These will be held on Wednesdays.

Classes will be held for the 40 inches to the chin on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday.

There are 10 half-hour classes, one each week, for 10 weeks. There is a fee involved. Classes start Monday, June 21, and continue until August 26.

"Isn't that something?" said Band Director Douglas Monday. "We're going to have the fanciest band in the west."

He said he had no idea of the generosity of the people of Albany when the campaign was launched with a modest goal of $1,300 for this year. To date, they have more than $2,800. The uniforms will cost about $75 each and they expected to purchase the necessary 80 over a period of several years. Right now, Douglas doesn't know exactly how it will be handled.

Between 200 and 300 people enjoyed the day in the park and band concert Sunday. A Mrs. Lane won the wrist watch and the Albany High 12 club won the Sting Ray bicycle (?).

AHS Students In Trouble Shoot Contest

Albany High School auto mechanics instructor Robert Hughes has announced that two of his top students will represent their school in the annual Plymouth Trouble-Shooting Contest to be held Wednesday, May 26, at the Oakland Auditorium.

Ray Lamanno and Dean Sauer will be competing with high school mechanics from throughout the Bay Area. An alternate, as yet unnamed, will fill in should either of the two be unable to compete.

Entrants will be judged on their ability to locate and repair automotive failures. Trophies will be awarded and the winners will be sent to Chrysler Corporation Headquarters in Detroit for the national finals and a possible four-year scholarship.

Rev. Bruce Parker Republican Speaker

Albany Republican Assembly presents another "top notch" speaker Wednesday, May 26. The public is urged to come. At 8 p.m., a short business meeting will be held followed by Rev. Bruce Parker, pastor of the Walnut Creek Baptist church, at 8:30 p.m. He will speak on "Ministry and Republicanism."

Reverend Parker, a native of California, received his theology education at The Bible Institute in Los Angeles, also two years in the Ministry of Evangelism. Reverend Parker is a major in the United States Air Force Reserve.

Maid of Albany Contest Tonight at Theatre

Eight candidates will compete for the title of Maid of Albany at Albany Theatre beginning at 7 p.m. tonight. Tickets, $1.10 each, will be available at the door and entitle the holder to see the contest with its special entertainment as well as the movie to follow.

New candidates since last week include Carol Ann Jones, Judith Ann Young, Sandra Ann Hicks and Carol Ann Markham. Previously reported are Valerie Hanelt, Susan Jane Allen, Roxanne Eileen Koran and Kathleen Lou Valentine.

In addition to the judges' selection of Maid of Albany, a new trophy this year will be for Miss Congeniality, selected by the contestants themselves. Sharon Dreyer, the lovely 1964-65 Maid, will place the tiara on her successor's head.

Entertainment will be provided by the top winners of the recent Exchange club Search for Talent. Judges are Mayor Lewis Howell, Dorothy Larimer, Police Chief Ralph Jensen, Councilman George Hein and Robert Gunderson, general manager of Golden Gate Fields.

Ushers, wearing tuxedos from Roos/Atkins, will be John H. Thomsen, Jerry Sandlin, Jay C. Kennedy, Glenn Roark and Chris van Eckhardt.

Bill Davis of Albany (KGO-TV) will be master of ceremonies.

The Maid of Albany will receive many prizes. She will compete July 4 in the Maid of Alameda County contest, marking opening day of the county fair in Pleasanton.

Flowers from Flowerland, special music by Bob Olson of Sherman-Clay, trophies and pearl necklaces for each contestant and official flowers by American Florist will enhance the program. Theo Kann is official contest photographer.

Hair styles for the Maid throughout her reign will be provided by Joe and Dorothy Maples of North Berkeley Beauty school. A Plymouth Sports Fury is at her disposal for official appearances, courtesy of H. L. Moore, Chrysler-Plymouth.

Prizes for the lucky winner will include a $200 scholarship; $50 savings bond from the Chamber of Commerce; $200 course from Patricia Stevens Finishing school in Oakland; $25 scholarship from the Exchange club and a trip to Disneyland with other Maids in the county. Call Brothers Jewelers are presenting each contestant with a pearl necklace.

Skateboard Contest May 31

The Albany Y will sponsor a skateboard contest at 10 a.m. Monday, May 31, according to John Carhart, secretary of Albany YMCA.

The contest will be held in Cornell school yard and is to be limited to Albany residents. Entry forms are available at the Y, 921 Kains.

Attractive prizes will be awarded to first, second and third place winners in various events, including slalom, free exercise and specialty events.

Three divisions have been set up: girls 18 and under; boys 12 and under and boys 13 to 18. A 25 cent entry fee will cover insurance.

Strikebreaker Ordinance

Councilman George Hein Blasts Council Action

Councilman George Hein, who was absent from the Albany City Council meeting on May 17 when many important items were voted upon, let his fellow councilmen know in no uncertain terms what he thought of their action when he returned this Monday night.

Referring to the ordinance which prohibits professional strikebreakers in Albany, Hein said, "I think this is the most assinine and unnecessary step the Albany Council has taken since I've been on. . . . Every city in Alameda County has been asked to pass it and all have more industry than Albany. . . . yet we're the first to pass it, an ordinance that doesn't mean a thing to Albany!"

He made a reference to the "two who were for it, including a shop steward. . . ."

Both Councilmen Richard Clark and Joe Egenberger rushed to the defense of the ordinance and Clark expressed resentment at the implication that they were "currying favors with the unions."

Much of the same ground pro and con was covered by Council once more before the ordinance squeaked through 3-2 and was passed to print (see today's legal notices). Hein and Councilman Joel Parker voted no.

Two other actions of the Council last week will be returned as new business at the meeting Tuesday, June 1. On motion of Hein, the constitutional amendment which would create a one per cent gross receipt tax on telephone companies (support of which failed for lack of a majority May 17) will be brought up again. Hein has previously been in favor of the amendment.

Following a lengthy discussion of the legality of doing so, Council followed the advice of City Attorney Larry Saler and voted to allow as new business June 1 a new request for financial support of the 20th Anniversary of the UN. A request for one cent per capita failed for lack of majority May 17. The new request is for $150. Hein's voting in the past has been pro-UN.

A request to proclaim Oct. 21 as UN Day passed 3-2 with Egenberger and Parker voting no.

The controversial change in R-2 zoning was discussed at length. Council adopted the R-1250 section, but decided to follow the Planning and Zoning commission in turning down the R-1650 section of the proposed change. This leaves the Cornell school area, where the turmoil erupted, the (Continued on Page 3)

Most Places Closed Monday, May 31

Monday, May 31, is a legal holiday in observance of Memorial Day and, according to indications, most Albany business places will be closed all day.

School children will have a day's vacation Monday, according to Superintendent Kenneth M. Forry. Council will not meet until Tuesday, June 1. City offices will be closed on Monday as will banks and the post office.

A similar situation will exist Monday, July 5, when Albany will officially celebrate the Fourth of July holiday.

Band Battle Finals at Lucky 13

The Lucky 13 Teen Club will feature the finals in its Battle of the Bands Friday night, pitting the Opposit Six against the Witnesses, Harold Peterson announced.

The Opposit Six won the Battle of the Bands at the San Mateo County Fair, judged by 3,000 young people, Peterson said, adding the winning band will receive a huge trophy and two-week engagement at the club.

The Dobermen, fresh from the nationally-televised "Shindig," are booked for Saturday night at the club.

UN Committee To Be Formed

Dr. Florence Harris has announced that, due to numerous requests, a committee supporting the 20th anniversary of the United Nations is being formed in Albany.

Those interested may contact her. Those who would like to make individual contributions may direct them to Albany UN Committee, PO Box 7002, Landscape Station.

It was and, according to Councilmen, "we have a thing."
The council moved successfully to allow a resolution of no more than 100 feet per dwelling to allow something better than the current maximum of 120 feet.
The work will be held with Planning Commissioners. The council decided to do something about the zoning on Adams Street at a later date.
Herman Ruth read the preliminary general plan. Ruth said he believed the general plan is not understood in the city. The plan is not to be translated directly. "The general plan is a zoning map," he wrote.
The city flag design was officially adopted and work in renovating rest rooms in Memorial Park was authorized.
The meeting adjourned about 10:30 p.m.

THE JUNE ISSUE of "Master Detective" carries a long article on the disappearance of Judy Williamson. Unusually accurate in detail concerning the case itself, it might have done better in descriptions of Chief Jensen: "lean, light-haired;" Inspector Art Smith: "stocky, balding." One picture of Inspector Vern Freeman is captioned "Insp. Smith with Judy's broken umbrella," and Jensen isn't shown either, except as hands holding Judy's books.
DR. FLORENCE HARRIS reports that her song, "Walk Together, Talk Together," is being published by Everett Ingraham Productions company in San Francisco. Three of her 15 songs have been recorded and proceeds will be used to help promote the United Nations. One of her songs, "Light a Little Candle," was inspired by Adlai Stevenson's eulogy of Eleanor Roosevelt: "She would rather light a candle than curse the darkness."

Carl MacWilliams P&Z Chairman

Carl J. MacWilliams

Carl J. MacWilliams was elected chairman of the Planning and Zoning commission at its May 11 meeting. Dr. Arthur Longpre was elected vice chairman. Outgoing chairman is Norman Jacobson.

During the business meeting, the commission granted with conditions a request by Marian Kroft to continue operating a rest home at 910 Cornell.

Following protests from several in the audience, the application of Neil Corey to stack firewood at 804 San Pablo, next to a service station, was denied. The vote was 4-1 with Longpre voting no. Subject to Council approval (which was received), the commission approved the application of J. Hogg for a seven unit apartment at 514 Kains.

It recommended denial of the application of the Fred Amrosinos to move a fourplex from El Cerrito to 1053 Stannage. (This was denied by Council.)

Poppy Days

POPPY DAYS — Albany Mayor Lewis M. Howell purchases a poppy from Susan Snell, member of the Junior Auxiliary of Albany, and Mrs. Maude Talmadge, who is poppy chairman for Albany auxiliary unit to American Legion post 292. Poppy days will be May 28 and 29. —Times Photo.

POPPY DAYS OBSERVED HERE ON MAY 28-29

Volunteer workers from Albany unit 292, American Legion Auxiliary will offer memorial poppies to the public May 28 and 29. All funds raised by the annual Poppy Day program go directly to disabled veterans or their families.

The poppy as a memorial to our servicemen's sacrifices for the cause of freedom dates back to the years following World War I. The American soldiers returning home in 1918 were familiar with the wild poppies which bloomed on the battlefields of Europe.

All of the red crepe paper poppies offered to the public in Albany have been made by veterans in the Livermore VA Hospital. By wearing a poppy every citizen has a chance to personally honor the war dead while helping the living.

There'll always be plenty of energy here!

In Northern and Central California, plenty of gas and electricity is one thing you can always count on.

Plenty for the many ways you put gas and electricity to use right now. Plenty for the amazing new ways gas and electricity will serve you in the future. Plenty for homes... plenty for farms... and plenty for business and industry.

That's because PG&E plans ahead. This year, 7,600 construction men and 275 million dollars are working on expansion of PG&E facilities. Completion of the McCloud-Pit Project, for instance, involves 6 dams, 10 miles of tunnels and 107 million dollars. Or take our Moss Landing Power Plant expansion—when finished, that plant will generate more electricity than all 71 plants on our system in 1948.

Moreover, you can depend on our continuing to keep PG&E energy your best bargain.

Native of Starkville, Miss., he received his BS in civil engineering from the University of California in Berkeley in 1949. He was hired by the City of Albany four years ago.

He and his wife, Barbara, live in San Leandro with their children, Daniel, 17; Carolyn, 14, and Fred, eight.

Jim's offices are on the second floor of City Hall, 1045 Solano Ave. Here all manner of problems, ranging from flooded sewers and weed abatement to issuing of permits, inspecting new construction, and working on plans for new city buildings are handled with a minimum of confusion amid jangling telephones and scurrying employees. Turner attends all meetings of City Council, Planning and Zoning commission, Traffic and Safety commission and many other civic groups.

He accompanies the mayor to the monthly meetings of the Mayors' Conference, attends hearings, keeps abreast of matters before the state legislature. Those who attend City Council meetings know how frequently Councilmen refer items to the Administrative Officer.

He is a member of Albany Rotary club and the American Public Works commission.

"The business climate in a city influences overall ability for a city to prosper," Turner says. "The Chamber of Commerce is the best means by which business can work together for solution to problems along the road to success."

Mrs. John B. (Dorothy) Larimer, news editor-photographer for the Albany Times, has worked on Albany Chamber of Commerce projects for six of the seven years she has lived in Albany, and has been a member of the Board of Directors for one year.

Chairman of the annual dinner, which will be June 4 at Berkeley House, she is program and publicity chairman for the third annual Art Show and Merchants Bazaar Aug. 27-29.

Native of Montana, she came to California via Illinois, where she was employed by the Bloomington Daily Pantagraph, part-owned by Adlai Stevenson.

Since coming to Albany, she has been a member of the State Republican Central committee, Albany High, Cornell and Macgregor PTAs, active on committees working for passage of the school and city bond issues, member of the local March of Dimes committee and is Alameda County Public Relations Director for the March of Dimes. She is a member of Press Women of the East Bay and National Press Photographers' association.

Mrs. Larimer lives at 729 Evelyn with her husband, John, who is in charge of the Property Management department of Jerome Blank Realty; her mother, Mrs. Dora Thompson, and three daughters, Nancy, nine; Susie, seven, and Lisa, four. An older daughter, Judi Carabello, is married and lives in Oakland.

"Having been affiliated with state and local Chambers of Commerce over a period of 16 years, I know the Chamber is the one organization through which business people and interested individuals may exert a dynamic force for the benefit of a community. There is much to be done in Albany. Some people who should be active choose to sit back and criticize. I sincerely hope we'll round them up during our membership drive."

Marie Farwell
Hostess for Annual Dinner

The lovely home of Marie Farwell, 1080 Contra Costa Drive, El Cerrito, will be the locale of the Soroptimist Club of Albany's annual dinner party Thursday, May 27, at 6:30 p.m.

Mrs. Farwell, Albany realtor associated with Mark Reid, has planned a gala affair. She stated "The Albany club is a personification of friendship," so her dinner party which, incidentally, is the last fund-raising event for the present term, will be a gala, accentuating the friendly spirit of the group.

Mrs. Carroll (Bernice) Boyd, president of the club and well-known for her friendly southern hospitality, will assist Mrs. Farwell in receiving guests. The hostesses urge everyone to arrive promptly at 6:30 p.m. for a friendship hour before dinner.

AHS Spring
Concert
Thursday

Members of Albany High School's orchestra, choir and choral club are busy putting the final touches on the music for the 1965 Spring Concert. The performance will be presented this Thursday evening, May 27, at 8 p.m. in the Albany High auditorium.

Cynthia Bedford, widely-known AHS senior musician, will perform three featured solos at the concert. In her lovely contralto voice, she will sing two numbers, accompanied by Mrs. Carnon Swift. In her role as concert-mistress of the orchestra, she will play a violin solo. She will be accompanied by the orchestra, under the baton of director Ernest Douglas.

Sherry Volz and Margaret Tuftt have been working hard this week to polish their respective instrumental solos. Both these girls received high ratings at the Bay Area Solo and Ensemble competition this year. Senior Sherry Volz will play her trumpet solo with the accompaniment of Irene Ohney, and Margaret, who received the highest honors possible at the competition, will perform a French horn solo to the accompaniment of the orchestra.

Vocal soloists at the concert will include senior George Fields and Del McLaughlin. Their solo at the concert will be accompanied by the choir, under director Stephen Lehmer.

The Spring Concert is free, and the public is cordially invited.

Swingin' Granny
Key Winner
In Contest

Irral "Swingin' Granny" Berger, formerly of 812 Cornell Ave., Albany, swung her way into first place at the annual Senior Citizens Talent Contest in San Francisco last Saturday.

Mrs. Berger, 80 years young and a devotee of rock 'n roll rhythm, showed once more her talent at the piano when she won over the judges with a medley of her own eight-to-the-bar compositions and is now entitled to compete in the state-wide senior citizens talent contest June 12 in San Diego.

The contest, held at the Good Fellowship Hall of the Glide Memorial Church at Ellis and Taylor Streets in San Francisco, had 30 other contestants whose talent, as San Francisco Mayor John F. Shelley expressed it, "had been sharpened by experience."

Judges were John Pettit, vice president emeritus of the Yellow Cab Co., Municipal Judge Fitz-Sullivan and Dorothy Shinder.
